WELCOME TO HOUSE OF MYSTICS – WHERE ALL OF US ARE CONSIDERED MYSTICS.
MANY OF US. LET'S GET TO KNOW EACH OTHER. ♡ MUCH LOVE.

Hey everyone!

It is super awesome to finally be able to say that the House of Mystics website is now online.

Some people may be thinking, “Dude, it’s just a website.” 😂

But this website is the doorway to the House of Mystics YouTube channel.

Imagine someone walking into your room and finding copies of videos scattered all over your desk, with no explanation of what they are, no order of progression, and no clear way to understand how everything connects. That has basically been the YouTube channel up until now.

Most people go to YouTube to watch different videos based on their interests, but House of Mystics uses YouTube in a slightly different way. We use it as a free video hosting platform, a repository for the tools, experiences, and creations we want to share.

Now, with the website, we can explain what everything is, embed the videos directly on the site, and link everything back to the YouTube channel in a way that actually makes sense.

Some paid services and membership platforms charge people every month to access material like what we share through House of Mystics. By using this format, we never have to charge for access to the videos. In the future, YouTube can generate income through viewers, everyone gets free content, and House of Mystics does not have to go broke in the process.

Win-win for everyone. 😂

For now, the site is officially in BETA. That means not everything is finished or fully working yet, but the main pages for each section are online.

I am only one person using AI to help build everything, so the website will expand incrementally over time. The goal right now is to create broad coverage across the site so that once someone understands how one section works, it helps them understand the rest of the content being shared through House of Mystics.

We are using a pretty standardized format across Arcs, Jumps, Songs, and Podcasts, so once the structure clicks in one place, it will make sense going forward.

I want to thank you all and welcome you to House of Mystics, where all of us are considered Mystics.

Here, we understand that life, reality, God, creation, and our experience can be interacted with in more ways than we are usually taught. We choose to use tools of intention, love, vibration, energy, and directed focus to ask for that which we wish to create and experience.

Much love to everyone on this journey.

Please feel free to reach out through email or social media, and let’s get this community going.

There are many of us.

Let’s get to know each other.
